| 1030-1100 | Industrial Base Assessment – Mr. Philip Odeen, Chairman, TRW Incorporated In 2000 Mr. Odeen chaired a seminal Defense Science Board study of the health of the Nation's defense industrial base. The study opened a number of eyes to the deteriorating state of our defense base. Now, Mr. Odeen presents an update on what has happened to the defense industrial base since 2000 and what challenges and opportunities can be expected for the future. Areas covered will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Implementation of the DSB's key recommendations• Changes in the Defense Industry's internal business environment since 2000• Effects of the continued consolidation of the Defense Industry• Current health and resilience/redundancy of the defense supply chain (small suppliers, etc)• Effects of action/inaction with regard to export controls and intellectual property rules• Changes in Defense Industry health brought about by recent increased defense budgets. |
| 1100-1130 | BIC 101: An Introduction to the Department of Defense Business Initiative Council – Dr. Nancy Spruill, Director, Acquisition Resources and Analysis Have you been wondering what the Department of Defense Business Initiative Council (DoD BIC) is, who sits on it, what they do, and why? Under the leadership of the USD(AT&L), the BIC was chartered by the Senior Executive Council (SEC) to improve the efficiency of DoD business operations. Dr. Nancy Spruill, Director of Acquisition Resources & Analysis, OUSD(AT&L)ARA, who also serves on the BIC Executive Steering Committee, will offer an overview of the DoD BIC, including such topics as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How the Bic is organized• How initiatives are identified, vetted, and approved• What areas the BIC is looking at• What initiatives have been approved so far |

| 1515-1545 | Break |
| 1545-1715 | Panel: Requirements and Acquisition Integration In the DPG, the Secretary of Defense has directed a re-look at how the current PPBS, requirements, and acquisition processes operate. His direction is based on his belief that the systems don't provide him or the Department with the information or decision support they need. Joint Staff and AT&L have been looking at how to implement a new, integrated, collaborative requirements and acquisition process with a view to accomplishing three things: 1) provide a construct for analysis; 2) develop an analytical tool to find out what is needed; 3) align and streamlining the processes. This panel will describe emerging results from that work, discuss its implications, and provide a look at what might be to come. Moderator: Mr. Ric Sylvester, Deputy Director, Defense Procurement and Acquisition Policy (Systems Acquisition) Panel Members: Mr. Greg Hulcher; Mr. John Landon, Principal Director (DASD) C3ISR & IT Programs; CAPT Jeff Gernand, Navy, J-8; Deepwater - Industry Program Manager; Deepwater - Government Program Manager |
